

Local 109 Pilots Union at Air Methods Corporation welcomes acquisition of CJ Systems Aviation Group Inc.

Denver, CO July 31, 2007 - On behalf of the Membership, the Local 109 Executive Board welcomes the Pilots of CJ Systems. This is truly an exciting development for our Union, our Company, and our Industry. We look forward to, and are committed to, the successful integration of the newly acquired Pilots into our organization.

In accordance with the terms of our Collective Bargaining Agreement the Union will be meeting with the Company promptly to discuss the obvious issues and concerns, and will work diligently to reach a final agreement to this matter as soon as possible.

Information will be posted as it becomes available on the amcpilots.com website under the "CJ Systems Info" link. We ask that current Members of Local 109 assist in directing CJ Pilots to this resource.

In Unity,

Your Local 109 Executive Board
